

Week Beginning Monday 8th June

Hi all,

As we are getting near the end of the 'school' term, you will be glad to know, we will be reducing the amount of academic work from next week on. Please don't worry if all the books are not complete. We will be going back over these topics again next year. If children would like to finish off their books over the summer they can! I completely understand that every situation at home is different so only complete the work if you can.

I hope you have a lovely week.

Ms Harrison
