Dear Parent,

Again this week the work is in the same format so if possible try and print out the sheet above so the children have that as their guide. The following are some ideas for people who may want additional work for their children:

Seesaw:

Same plan this week; I will be posting activities every morning. I will also be posting daily video tutorials that tie in with the new work that the children will be doing in their textbooks. (Note activities and Irish videos with instructions in activity section, Maths and Literacy video tutorials in Journal section!)

Reading/Literacy:

I think each student should try to read for half an hour each day. The children's targets have been reset so that should now give them an achievable target to aim for.

- To access their AR login at :<https://ukhosted11.renlearn.co.uk/6657860/> (if anyone has forgotten their passwords I can forward them onto them)
- If anyone wants to check out how much points their book is/ZPD level they can do so at <https://www.arbookfind.co.uk/UserType.aspx?RedirectURL=%2fdefault.aspx>

Gaeilge:

The children again have their main body of work in their work plan for the week. As I previously stated; Edco Learning have made their website free for the lockdown. You simply go their website and use edcotrial for both the username and password. The following is some vocabulary which might help out with their work this week:

Page 126: síolta=seeds, ag tochailt=digging, nóiníní=daisies, sabhaircíní=primroses, bainne bó bleachtain=cowslips, lus an chromchinn=daffodils

CÚLA4 AR SCOIL

I'm not sure if anybody checked out CÚLA4 on TG4 last week but the lessons are really good. For this fortnight CÚLA4 AR SCOIL will focus on the theme, 'An t-Earrach'(Spring). Múinteoir Orla will look at the flowers of Spring and she will go through the steps of how to plant a seed with us.

Múinteoir Mícheál will look at the ancient Celtic festival Imbolg that used to be celebrated this time of year in the past and he will give us an insight to the life of The Celts in his history lesson. He will also show us how to draw a Celtic knot.

It airs Monday to Thursday at 10am on TG4, and is repeated at 4pm. Catch up anytime on TG4.ie or Cula4.com and watch individual lessons on Cúla4's youtube channel.

Maths:

We will be looking at Multiplication all this week. A maths website I highlighted last week is ixl maths. It's a great website I think and there's some really useful skills taught here for multiplication which we are doing this week. The link to access it is <https://ie.ixl.com/math/class-4>.

PE: Continue with our 100 pucks a day! (I will upload on Seesaw what skills to focus on), Donna Dunne and Joe Wicks online classes if they suit. Something new for the class is School Fitness Ireland. They're an after school service which have made all their classes free for the month of February. I logged in to check them out and I have to say the classes were absolutely brilliant. Every day Monday to Friday a new class is uploaded. The classes are 30 minutes in duration, they're not live so you can pause, rewind and do them at your own pace. I would highly recommend looking into this and the link to access the free classes for the rest of the month is below:

Social Zoom Call: I will host two social Zoom calls again this week, same days and times as last week (Boys on Wednesday at 5pm and Girls on Thursday at 5pm). Rather than emailing everybody to see who wants to take part I'm just sending an invite to everybody in both groups in the class and whoever wants to attend can do so.

Finally if there's anything anyone wants help with or is worried about feel free to email me at pflood@stlachtainsns.ie and I will get back to you as soon as possible. If there's any additional time available and a device free this week I would prioritise taking an AR test this week! Keep Safe.

Regards, Mr.Flood.
